About Chris Shulman – Primary Trainer

Christopher M. Shulman is a Federal, Circuit Civil, and County Mediator and an Approved Court-Appointed Arbitrator Trainer. With more than 2000 arbitrations or adjudications completed (including more than 400 court-appointed arbitrations and another approximately 450 arbitrations in other fora), he has earned a wealth of practical knowledge arbitrating in a large variety of subject matter areas. He has taught at the graduate level for more than 20 years and teaches various ADR courses as an Adjunct Professor at Stetson University College of Law. Chris is also a practicing mediator and arbitrator and has focused his energies solely on serving as the neutral since 2002. He has spoken at most of the Florida Dispute Resolution Center's conferences for the past 16 years, as well as at many private ADR seminars. Chris is also a member of the American Arbitration Association's Commercial, Employment, Labor, Large and Complex Case, and Consumer Arbitration (CAP) Panels, an FMCS Labor Arbitrator, a Wage Theft Special Magistrate, and a former Hillsborough County Childcare Licensing Hearing Officer. He also serves on the Florida Supreme Court ADR Rules and Policy Committee, and the Mediator Qualifications and Disciplinary Review Board.
